Medicaid Today and Going Forward

- A state-federal partnership
- Today Medicaid and CHIP covers 56 million low-income individuals, families and children
- ACA Medicaid Expansion has promise to cover millions of uninsured Americans
 - Parents of children states now cover
 - Parents of children who have grown and left home
 - Women who states cover when they are pregnant
 - Older people but still too young for Medicare
 - Younger people just starting out on their own
 - Disabled individuals who are not yet in poor enough health

Family & household

We need to know about everyone included on your same federal income tax return (if you file taxes) AND all the family members who live with you, even if they're not applying for health insurance.

We'll match you with programs based on your income and family size, so we need this information to make sure you get the most help possible.

All fields are required unless otherwise indicated.

You may need:

- › Social Security numbers
- › Document numbers for any people with eligible immigration status who need insurance
- › Birth dates
