

Inland Northwest Transitional Respite Program

Securing Hospital Funding

Rebecca Doughty, MN, RN, PhD student

Founder/Director Inland Northwest Transitional Respite Program

Director of Medical Services, Catholic Charities Spokane

Background

- Inland Northwest Transitional Respite Program
- Shelter-based respite for men and women
- Opened in November 2012 with 1 male bed
- Currently 19 male beds and 2 female beds

Background

- 2012
 - 6 patients
- 2013
 - 75 patients
 - 1,405 bed nights
- 2014
 - 195 patients
 - 3,480 bed nights

Funding History

- 2012
 - How much?
 - $10,000
 - From?
 - Providence Community Benefit Fund
 - Who did I approach?
 - Director of Social Work and lead hospitalist

Funding History

- 2013
 - How much?
 - $78,000
 - From?
 - Providence Health Care Foundation
 - Who did I approach?
 - ER physician, founder of Providence Consistent Care Spokane

Funding History

- 2014
 - How much?
 - $350,000
 - From?
 - Providence Community Benefit Fund
 - Who did I approach?
 - Manager of CBF, Chief Mission Integration Officer

Funding History

- 2015
 - How much?
 - $500,000
 - From?
 - Hospital (operationalized)
 - Who did I approach?
 - CEO, CFO, social work, CBF staff, Foundation staff

Requirements

- End-of-year summary
 - Population served
 - Number of individuals admitted
- Periodic requests for program data for grant/award applications
- Case studies

Suggestions

- Start small, including limiting the number of people involved in planning
- Apply for hospital system awards
- Disseminate information about program throughout community

Discussion

Contact Information

Becky Doughty

bdoughty@ccspokane.org

rebecca.doughty@email.wsu.edu

509-638-3728