

What does the National Health Care for the Homeless Council mean to its members?

“As CEO for a large FQHC with an add-on HCH Program, the National Council provides great resources and information on issues related to housing and homelessness not found in any other area.”

-Tom Horan: PrimaryOne Health,
Columbus, OH

“The Council not only delivers state of the art technical assistance and training, it also provides a community of kindred spirits to nurture and sustain me in the struggle for basic human rights.”

-Bill Friskics-Warren: Neighborhood Health, Nashville, TN

“The Council has been a lifeline to me professionally, personally, and for our organization. Without the Council, I would not be here still doing this work.”

-Bobby Watts: Care for the Homeless, New York, NY

“We belong to the Council because the work is often lonely and hard, and our Council community gives us support and direction.”

-Jean Hochron: Montgomery County Health Care for the Homeless, Rockville, MD

“The Council keeps me grounded and helps me to remember why I am doing this work—why I’ve been dedicated to this work for so many years.”

-Marianne Savarese: Manchester Health Care for the Homeless, Manchester, NH

“Membership with the Council is one of the smartest steps you can take to ensure the health and success of your organization!”

-BJ Iacino: Colorado Coalition for the Homeless, Denver, CO

“The peer support possible through the National HCH Council is simply unparalleled anywhere else.”

-Kevin Lindamood: Health Care for the Homeless, Baltimore, MD
